INCREASE IN ANNUAL RENEWAL DUES NOTICE

Effective for Fiscal Year Beginning July 1, 2016 and Thereafter

During the Schofield Rod & Gun Club's general membership meeting on Wednesday, 11 May 2016, at SR-5, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, the membership unanimously approved to increase the annual membership dues to $40 from $20, effective for the Fiscal Year Beginning July 1, 2016 based upon the Treasurer's reported budget forecast for FY 2016-2017. As a reminder the annual renewal dues is due by June 30, 2016.[1]

For members who did not satisfy their minimum volunteer requirements for the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 2016 and did not remit their opt-out dues under Section 2 of the Volunteer Policy, your membership renewal dues due for the Fiscal Year Beginning July 1, 2016 and Ending June 30, 2017 is $150 (Annual renewal dues of $40 + Special assessment membership due of $110).[2]

Members who have already paid their annual dues for FY 2016-2017, including subsequent fiscal years will be required to remit the additional amount due as a result of the increase in annual renewal membership dues.

[1] See ARTICLE IX – FUNDING SOURCES. 9.1. General. The funds necessary to pursue Club's purpose as described in Article 1.2 shall be derived from dues, fees and service charges paid by the membership, from donations from individuals, other private associations or foundations. The Executive Committee shall establish dues, fees and all other charges for the use of Club property, facilities, services and activities, subject to the limitations contained in the Articles and Bylaws and provide notice to the general membership, and shall appropriate funds for other expenditures needed to fulfill the purpose and objectives of the Club as described in the Articles and Bylaws. Appropriated funds shall not be drawn and expended for other than the designated purpose without the approval and consent of the general membership. 9.2. Dues. a. Required to Pay. All regular and associate members, other than lifetime and honorary, shall be assessed and obligated to pay annual membership dues when assessed and notified. Renewing members shall remit all dues payable for the subsequent fiscal year to the Membership Director on or before June 30th of the current fiscal year. b. Amounts. Annual membership dues shall be determined by the Executive Committee that shall be sufficient to accomplish the Club's purpose and objectives as budgeted. Additionally, the Executive Committee shall determine the annual special assessment dues for members wishing to elect out of the minimum hourly volunteer requirement set forth in Section 2.4.c. during the fiscal year, including the annual special assessment dues for a member who did not elect out of the minimum hourly volunteer requirement during the year and did not satisfy the minimum hourly volunteer requirement at the end of the fiscal year. Changes in dues contemplated in this subsection require approval of the general membership at a general meeting.

[2] See Volunteer Policy Section 4. Failure to Satisfy Minimum Volunteer Requirement. Members who do not satisfy their annual minimum volunteer requirement at the close of the fiscal year shall be retroactively assessed a special assessment membership due of $110, irrespective of the member's membership category (Regular or Associate).
